Committee Reports:

- Archery—Nonstick tape put on steps to shooting tower. Targets all look good.
- Building/Grounds—Corn/hog roast went good.
- Farm—Joe Tucker will start fire break mowing Sunday. He would like to enhance the fire breaks by planting clover next year for the deer.
- Lakes—Trout, perch, crappie and grass carp have been ordered. Will not be delivered until the water is cooler. Lakes look good.
- Pheasants—October 21 pheasants delivered. October 10 feed delivered. Help will be needed with both deliveries. Youth hunt changed to October 23. Pheasant pen is awesome. Release dates posted.
- Rifle/Pistol Ranges—Venture Group is no longer associated with RCF&G.
- Sporting Clays—Good turnout for being holiday weekend. Clays from Canada are $12.00 a case. Rural King is $13.00 for 180 pieces. Looking for best price.
- Sportsmanship—Tree stand found without name and member number. Your name and member number must be on your tree stand and ground blind. They will be removed if not found properly identified.
- Trap—Doing well. Night shoot was awesome fun.

Old Business: None.

New Business: Don Roberts motion to donate $1500.00 to Madison Twsp Fire Dept. , second Larry Shaw. Vote 11 yes, 0 no. Approved.

Motion to Adjourn: 7:28 pm Jon Schoonyan, second Larry Shaw.
