Membership Secretary Report: None.

Committee Reports:

- Archery—Will purchase a 3D target.
- Building/Grounds—None.
- Farm—Will mow fire lanes again on next work day.
- Lake—Fish kill in old pond. Lack of oxygen. Algae bloom died. Paul Bond and Dee Dee Dull went to Fenders and got paddle boat to run in lake to supply oxygen. Timer was removed from aerators.
- Pheasants—Bird delivery dates posted on board at clubhouse.
- Rifle/Pistol Ranges—Both ranges have been redone.
- Sporting Clay—Rained out for first shoot.
- Sportsmanship—Two members put their deer stands up before daylight on September 1. This rule was made for safety reasons.
- Trap—Going good.

Old Business: Work days were very productive this year. Thank you to all who participated.

Greg Martin and his committee revised the Constitution. The committee met every other Wednesday. The main committee members were Greg Martin, Bob Ball, Eric Parr. Paul Bond and Dee Dee Dull were present for questions and guidance. Different members would attend the meetings and offer suggestions. Copies will be sent to all members for review. There will be a vote to accept the revision at the December annual member meeting.

Ramp is complete. Nice job to all who helped and Jeff Weithman who headed the project.

New Business: Mike Hoffman proposed the Youth Hunt be run with time slotted hunts. This will be done with many volunteers. Safety is the top priority with a memorable hunt for the youth. Safety meeting planned for the youth and trap shooting to learn hunting skills. Each hunt will include member with dog, 2 youth and 2 safety members. October 22 will be the Youth Hunt. Mike Hoffman will be the person in charge.

Motion to Adjourn: 8:35 pm Snip Tucker, second Don Roberts.
